

Lesego Mokone

Information Security & Risk Management

+2782 462 0316

Lesego.Mokone@gauteng.gov.za

With only four years experience in the field of Information Security and five years in the corporate world, Lesego is currently employed as a Deputy Director, Information Security at the Gauteng Shared Service Centre (GSSC) within Information Security and Risk Management business unit falling under Technology Support Services. Her current roles amongst others entails developing Information Security strategy that is in line with business objectives, ensuring compliance to legislative frameworks and information security policies, assessing and managing IT risks as well as identifying, initiating and managing IT projects that are in line with business objectives for Gauteng Provincial Government,.

Prior to pursuing her career at GSSC, Lesego was employed under the capacity of a Junior Information Security Officer at Altech Namitech, and her role then, involved ensuring compliance to VISA International Logical Security Validation requirements For Card Personalization and MasterCard Logical Security Requirements for Card Personalization, investigating security incidents and ensuring corrective measures are taken on non-compliance to the Visa and MasterCard standards.

Below are some of her qualifications and achievements so far:

- In 2002 she completed her National Diploma in IT with University of South Africa (UNISA)
- In 2003 she worked for Pitseng Trust – Women’s Funding Organisation as an Office Administrator
- In 2004 she obtained BTECH IT – University of Johannesburg (UJ)
- In 2005 she joined Altech Namitech as a Junior information Security Officer
- In 2008 she joined Gauteng Shared Service Centre under the business unit of Information Security & Risk Management
- She was recently awarded Top Student achiever for having completed Management Advancement Program

Watch this space